

Week's Social Happenings in Towns of State

PROVO.

The musical given by the Commercial club at their rooms Tuesday evening was a rare treat and a grand social success. The rooms were decorated for the occasion with national colors and cut flowers. The programme consisted of some of the best musical talent in Utah. Interesting readings were given by Byron King. Short and spicy stories were interwoven. A sumptuous lunch was served.

On Tuesday evening the Odd Fellows entertained a number of friends at a smoker. Refreshments were served and an enjoyable evening passed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Partridge visited friends in Salt Lake Thursday.

Mrs. Margaret Watson was the hostess at a Reunion at her home Thursday afternoon. About twenty lady friends enjoyed a social afternoon. Dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. Cornelia Clayton spent Sunday with friends in Salt Lake.

The thirty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Johnson was celebrated at their home Wednesday evening. About fifty relatives and friends enjoyed an evening of social chat, music and recitations. An elaborate supper was served.

Mrs. Emma Dixon gave a theatre party to a number of friends Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Reed Smoot visited with relatives and friends in Salt Lake this week.

Miss Florence Gay of Ogden was the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. Decker, this week.

The Scandinavians of Provo and vicinity held a very enjoyable reunion Friday at the Second ward meeting house. An excellent programme of short speeches, music and recitations were enjoyed by a large number. A sumptuous dinner was served.

Andy Sanberg, formerly of American Fork, has taken up his residence in Provo.

Miss Jessie Dill of Columbus, O., has arrived in Provo and will spend several months with Mrs. W. H. Dusenberry.

The members of the Marguerite club entertained their partners at a candy pull Saturday evening at the home of president, Miss Fern Cluff. A merry evening was passed. Lunch was served.

Judge and Mrs. A. C. Hatch of Heber were visiting friends in Provo Wednesday.

Mrs. Hyrum Smith of Lehi returned home Thursday after a week spent in Provo with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gee.

Mrs. Pearl Yates entertained at a dinner at her home on Sunday. Covers were laid for eight.

Wash Brimhall of Canada is visiting friends in Provo.

Mr. and Mrs. John Peters of American Fork were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Peters Wednesday.

Mrs. Leon Bachman and Miss Fawn Twelves have returned home after a pleasant trip to California.

Mrs. Andrew Knudsen entertained a number of her lady friends at her home Friday afternoon. A social time was enjoyed and a sumptuous dinner served.

The deacons of the Sixth ward gave a very enjoyable party in the Ward assembly hall Friday evening.

Mrs. Mattie Warner was pleasantly surprised by about thirty of her friends at her home Friday evening. The time was passed merrily in games, music and recitations. Refreshments were served.

Miss Sarah E. Brereton of Provo and Ruben Christensen of Gunnison were married on Saturday at the home of the bride. The ceremony was performed by T. N. Taylor, at 6 o'clock, and witnessed by the immediate family and a few intimate friends. After the ceremony an elaborate dinner was served. The couple left the same evening for a several weeks' tour through California and Oregon. Mrs. Christensen is well known in this city.

and has a host of friends to wish her happiness through life.

John Lee Mason of this city and Miss Melissa Wright of Charleston were married in this city Thursday afternoon.

Judge J. E. Booth officiating. The Rebekah lodge entertained at their lodge rooms on Friday evening in honor of Mrs. C. L. Grier. Cards, music and recitations all tended to make a very enjoyable evening. A dainty lunch was served.

George Boyce of this city and Miss Emma Sorenson of Fairbury were joined in wedlock by Judge J. E. Booth, Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Boyce will reside in Provo.

Professor Lund and company gave an entertainment in Spanish Fork Thursday evening which was so entirely satisfactory that the citizens of that place will tender them a banquet in the near future.

Miss Pearl Jones visited friends in Salt Lake the latter part of the week.

Frederick Rust of Chicago, cousin of Mrs. S. H. Goodwin, spent a few days visiting in Provo.

The Women's Republican club met in their club rooms on Monday evening. An interesting programme was rendered, after which light refreshments were served.

The Sixth Ward Sewing club met Thursday evening at the home of Miss Adeline Scoville. Refreshments were served.

The Pallas club were entertained Thursday evening at the home of Miss Leah Payne. An entertaining and profitable evening was spent.

The Women of Woodcraft entertained in their lodge room Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. C. L. Grier, who will leave shortly for California to make her home.

The afternoon was pleasantly passed in social chat, music and in the partaking of dainty refreshments.

Miss Achsa Egerton was a visitor in Spanish Fork Thursday.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Graham entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Guy at their home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

The Bachelor Ladies' club delightfully entertained a number of friends at their Saturday evening at the Brigham Young university. None of the opposite sex were admitted. Each lady present represented some pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Colton and daughter of Heber were the guests of Mrs. A. Gordon in Provo.

lightful ball at Provo on Monday evening.

Mrs. A. L. Norfield left here the first of the week for Lebanon, Mo., where she will visit for several months with friends.

The friends of Mrs. William Bur tendered her a very pleasant surprise on Monday evening.

Miss Bertie Beckstead visited relatives in Preston, Ida., the first of the week.

Mrs. J. S. Baxter of Ogden visited in Logan this week with her sister, Mrs. Frank Hanks.

Alma Olsen, a well-known young man of the Fifth ward of this city, was united in marriage this week to Miss Adeline Porter of Franklin, Ida. A reception followed the wedding.

Dr. H. P. Emels left on Tuesday for Los Angeles, where he will spend a month or more in pleasure seeking.

Mr. Thomas Smart started this week on a trip to Mexico that combines business and pleasure.

David Low of Paris, Ida., visited relatives and friends in Logan and vicinity this week.

Charles England spent two or three days in Salt Lake City this week.

Dr. W. H. Chase was in Ogden the fore part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mocher of Grand Island, Neb., visited friends in Logan this week.

Paul E. Banker of Salt Lake City spent several days of this week in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Baird returned to their home in Baker City, Ore., on Wednesday, after a pleasant visit with Logan relatives.

The Women of American Falls visited for a couple of days this week with their mother, who resides here.

Thomas Low of Alberta, Canada, visited relatives in this vicinity this week.

Kelly Kerr of Los Angeles visited friends in this city on Monday.

Mrs. Mary Higgins of Lewiston, but late of New York City, visited the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lamoreaux.

S. J. Jeppesen returned from Salt Lake City on Sunday.

A. Gordon spent the fore part of the week with friends in Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lammerdorf returned Monday from their tour of California and Mexico. They report a very enjoyable trip.

W. T. Orrock was down from Gold Mountain on a visit to relatives this week.

Mrs. Andrew Lawson was down from Kimberly the past week visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Mary Stringham of Vermilion is here this week visiting with relatives.

Sam Bartlett returned to Kimberly Thursday to remain for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Almon Peers of Salt Lake visited this week with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliott.

Mrs. I. T. Wright returned from Provo Tuesday to reside here permanently.

Mrs. Martin Hansen and Miss Pearl Erickson went to Salina, Friday on a visit.

John Domgaard of Glenwood went to Mant Sunday to visit relatives for a couple of weeks.

Miss Senn Sorenson, the Kimberly postmistress, visited in Richfield Tuesday.

Mrs. Lave Morrison went to Salt Lake Sunday to visit a few weeks with her parents.

Mrs. Laura Thurber returned last week from Caliente, Nev., where she has been for several months.

Joseph Stringham of Thurber returned Friday from Canada, where he has been for the past two months visiting relatives.

Miss Josephine Olson returned to her home in Glenwood Friday after an absence of several weeks in Nevada.

Miss Elea Hepler came down from Salt Lake Tuesday, her school being closed on account of a smallpox epidemic.

James M. Bolitho, after a few days spent with his family, started Tuesday on another trip into Garfield and Beaver counties.

Mrs. Frank Johnson returned to Huntington after a visit here with her mother, Mrs. William Nelson and other relatives.

Miss Beale Asimus came down from Mt. Pleasant Thursday to be present at the farewell party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Asimus.

A surprise party was held on Orson C. Rasmussen Wednesday evening by a number of his neighbors. A very pleasant time is reported.

Mrs. Ed. Van Wageningen and children arrived from Provo Thursday and are now residents of Richfield. Mr. Van Wageningen has charge of the Consolidated Western company branch here.

Ed Anderson came down from Mt. Pleasant Monday and spent a couple of days here with his brother, A. B. Anderson, after which he went to Beaver.

Mrs. Charles Erickson went to Ephraim Friday as a witness in a suit against the D. & R. G. Railroad company.

Mrs. Rebecca Christensen departed for Rock Springs, Wyo., Monday to enter the general hospital there as a nurse.

Mrs. Piper arrived from Salt Lake Thursday with her mother, Mrs. H. L. Moulle. She is just recovering from a long siege of illness, during which time she underwent an operation which almost proved fatal.

Mrs. Olsen of Salt Lake is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. T. Williams.

Miss Julia Walker, teacher of the Lower Bingham school, returned to her home after the death of her brother, Miss Orpha Kelzer has been substituting for the week.

Mrs. Archie Orem is convalescing after a severe attack of la grippe.

Mrs. Anna Geffen has returned from her visit with friends at the capital.

Mrs. Ernest Bush, who has been visiting with her parents at the week.

Mrs. Fanny Allen and Miss Margaret McElonagh spent Saturday at the city.

Mrs. Lizzie Roberts returned to this city Tuesday after a brief stay in camp.

Mrs. Adeline Scoville and Mrs. Michael Fitzgerald entertained the Woman's Unity club at bridge whist Tuesday evening, March 30.

Mrs. Selma Finell of the Junction, who has been a house guest of Miss Cora Hocking, returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Anderson are moving into their spacious and modern new home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jinnson of Highland Boy were at the city during the week.

Joe Jones is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Kauffman at Tooele.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Darrenauve were at the city the first of the week.

The Woman's Unity club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Adeline Scoville. A book review of "The Gentleman From Indiana," and a special feature of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Evans entertained at the city Monday evening in compliment to the B. L. V. club of Upper Bingham. Dainty prizes were awarded.

Mrs. W. W. Brockton and A. Jensen, second prizes of honor were won by Mrs. A. Jensen and G. De Ford. About thirty guests enjoyed the delicious lunch.

The study session of the Woman's Unity club will be held at the home of Mrs. A. V. Anderson.

The Knights of Pythias excursion to Salt Lake for the "Damon and Pythias" production at the Salt Lake theatre was in every way a success.

Over 180 tickets were held from the old reliable.

Mrs. Wakeham and daughter Miss Letta were at the city Tuesday.

Mrs. A. W. Forman was at the city Friday.

Messrs. Frank Fairholm, Beck and John Evans will be hosts, Wednesday evening, March 14, at the home of Mrs. James Richards, in honor of the B. L. V. club of Upper Bingham.

Mrs. H. J. Robinson has for her house guest her sister, Mrs. H. J. Hupt of Ogden.

Mrs. Worthington Clark entertained a few friends at an anniversary dinner Monday evening. Covers were laid for eight guests.

Mrs. Charlie Brink entertained the Bingham Whist club Wednesday evening, March 14.

Supervisor E. E. Dudley, and assistants, Miss Furgus, Miss Allen, Miss McDougall, Miss McEvoy and J. C. Word, attended teachers' meeting at the capital Saturday.

Judge G. E. Lee and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bert McPhee, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stringham, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brockton, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gannon, Mr. and Mrs. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clays, were among city sojourners Tuesday.

A new case of 100 volumes has been received by the Woman's Unity club from the Utah Federation of Women's clubs. Many late books are in this case and are in every way desirable reading material.

Mrs. V. B. Jones entertained a few friends at whist Thursday evening. Covers were laid for eight guests.

Mrs. Charlie Brink was at the capital Friday.

Tom Stephens and baby were at the city during the week.

Mrs. Anna McGuire was among city visitors, during the week.

Mrs. Michael Fitzgerald and Mrs. Scoville entertained at bridge whist March 29.

Miss Clara Ballentine was at the capital Thursday to meet her sister, Mrs. Williamson of Butte, Mont., who arrived in Salt Lake Friday.

Mrs. Will Clays returned Thursday from Salt Lake, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Warren of the Junction.

Mrs. Hettie Hell of Dawson, N. W. T., sister of Frank MacLean, left for Los Angeles last week after a pleasant visit with her brother.

John Sindar and daughter Helen of Salt Lake returned home the first of the week.

The volunteer fire department will give a dance at Canyon hall, March 16. Excellent music has been arranged and a good time is assured. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

BINGHAM.

Mrs. Olsen of Salt Lake is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. T. Williams.

Miss Julia Walker, teacher of the Lower Bingham school, returned to her home after the death of her brother, Miss Orpha Kelzer has been substituting for the week.

Mrs. Archie Orem is convalescing after a severe attack of la grippe.

Mrs. Anna Geffen has returned from her visit with friends at the capital.

Mrs. Ernest Bush, who has been visiting with her parents at the week.

Mrs. Fanny Allen and Miss Margaret McElonagh spent Saturday at the city.

Mrs. Lizzie Roberts returned to this city Tuesday after a brief stay in camp.

Mrs. Adeline Scoville and Mrs. Michael Fitzgerald entertained the Woman's Unity club at bridge whist Tuesday evening, March 30.

Mrs. Selma Finell of the Junction, who has been a house guest of Miss Cora Hocking, returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Anderson are moving into their spacious and modern new home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jinnson of Highland Boy were at the city during the week.

Joe Jones is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Kauffman at Tooele.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Darrenauve were at the city the first of the week.

The Woman's Unity club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Adeline Scoville. A book review of "The Gentleman From Indiana," and a special feature of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Evans entertained at the city Monday evening in compliment to the B. L. V. club of Upper Bingham. Dainty prizes were awarded.

Mrs. W. W. Brockton and A. Jensen, second prizes of honor were won by Mrs. A. Jensen and G. De Ford. About thirty guests enjoyed the delicious lunch.

The study session of the Woman's Unity club will be held at the home of Mrs. A. V. Anderson.

The Knights of Pythias excursion to Salt Lake for the "Damon and Pythias" production at the Salt Lake theatre was in every way a success.

Over 180 tickets were held from the old reliable.

Mrs. Wakeham and daughter Miss Letta were at the city Tuesday.

Mrs. A. W. Forman was at the city Friday.

Messrs. Frank Fairholm, Beck and John Evans will be hosts, Wednesday evening, March 14, at the home of Mrs. James Richards, in honor of the B. L. V. club of Upper Bingham.

Mrs. H. J. Robinson has for her house guest her sister, Mrs. H. J. Hupt of Ogden.

Mrs. Worthington Clark entertained a few friends at an anniversary dinner Monday evening. Covers were laid for eight guests.

Mrs. Charlie Brink entertained the Bingham Whist club Wednesday evening, March 14.

Supervisor E. E. Dudley, and assistants, Miss Furgus, Miss Allen, Miss McDougall, Miss McEvoy and J. C. Word, attended teachers' meeting at the capital Saturday.

Judge G. E. Lee and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bert McPhee, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stringham, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brockton, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gannon, Mr. and Mrs. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Clays, were among city sojourners Tuesday.

A new case of 100 volumes has been received by the Woman's Unity club from the Utah Federation of Women's clubs. Many late books are in this case and are in every way desirable reading material.

Mrs. V. B. Jones entertained a few friends at whist Thursday evening. Covers were laid for eight guests.

Mrs. Charlie Brink was at the capital Friday.

Tom Stephens and baby were at the city during the week.

Mrs. Anna McGuire was among city visitors, during the week.

Mrs. Michael Fitzgerald and